Fun little game with variations and cool boss fights, However i did felt this motion sickness from the begining but released after a while. I recommend that you sit down and play. I can recommend this game you get a lot for your money u20ac 7.19. This game is awesome! it's BIG fun. The Boss level is fantastic! But 25 levels just ain't enough, i'd like to have 100 more.. The game is fun, difficulty is not very challenging but there are many levels to unlock and enough polishing to justify his price. Unfortunately, after fifteen minutes in it drives severe motion sickness on me, I did a few tries but after years in VR I know my limits and when to stop playing something. Without that issue than is a part of his own nature (being a grappling game, Windlands and others are just the same) I would surely play it until the end, so my final rating is positive. Just be sure your stomach is robust enough.. This is a fun puzzle game. Gotta say, one of the highlights of this game is the amazing music! Downside is, the game is pretty short, and not terribly difficult (I finished it in 100 minutes). The final boss battle was super cool, wish there was more.. Well done Computer Lunch & Zero Eden Games. 5 stars.. Much better game than I thought it would be. Brings out my fear of heights like windlands does, that's a good thing.. This is a surprisingly neat sort of puzzly game.. This turned out to be surprisingly enjoyable. The music and levels are fun and the concept is pretty simple, but still challenging to execute. I do recommend sitting on a stool or the like while you play.. Much better game than I thought it would be. Brings out my fear of heights like windlands does, that's a good thing.. I enjoyed this on oculus home and when I saw it on steam and working with the vive motion controls I had to grab it! Having a high end PC VR rig I'm not a fan of mobile VR ports but I have to say I really enjoy this one. Amazing feeling of freedom without the least hint of motion sickness. Challenging puzzles too.
